

FAMILY TREE / IMMIGRANTS / JOBS

paragraphe 1 :

My name is Aoife O' Sullivan.
My great-grand-parents left Cork in September 1848.
It was during the famine.
It was very difficult in Ireland.

paragraphe 2 :

They sailed to America.
They landed in New-York City and saw this statue.
That was 6 weeks later, in November 1848.
It was a great opportunity.

paragraphe 3 :

My great-grand-dad was a carpenter.
His name was Patrick.
My great-grand-mother was a housewife / she was NOT 'desperate'.
Her name was Mary.
They lived in 4th Avenue.

paragraphe 4 :

My grand-dad was a grocer.
His name was Jim.
He sold apples and bananas.
My grand-mother was a cleaner.
Her name was Aileen.
They lived on 5th Avenue.

paragraphe 5 :

My dad went to College.
His name was Sean.
He became a lawyer, but NOT for The Mafia...
My mother was an actress.
Her name was Niamh.
They lived in Brooklyn.
Mum was very famous, she worked at The MET Theatre.

paragraphe 6 : ( from a famous song by Sting / The Police )

I'm an alien
I'm a legal immigrant
I'm an Irish woman in New-York